Support (Ageing and Disability)

Skills for a brighter future.

CHC33021 Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing and Disability)

Launch a rewarding career with our Certificate III in Individual Support (Ageing and Disability) to equip you with essential skills that will open doors to exciting opportunities in aged care and disability support. Join us and start your journey to become a passionate and skilled support worker today.

Our course provides comprehensive training in key areas such as:

- Providing individualised support
- Supporting independence and well-being
- Applying basic principles and practices of infection prevention and control
- Working legally and ethically
- Working with diverse people
- Recognising healthy body systems

As a support worker, you will assist clients with their daily activities, promote their independence, and enhance their quality of life.

We offer learning options, available as both a traineeship and non-traineeship, to suit your needs. Whether you choose the traineeship option, where you can earn while you learn and gain practical experience in a real support setting, or the non-traineeship option, you will receive comprehensive online and in-person support, ensuring you receive a high-quality education.

Placement: To complete this course, learners must complete 120 hours of on-the-job experience. Short courses for customised training and workforce development are also on offer.
