Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure

Please note that Julie Reid Management Pty Ltd trading as MP Training and Recruitment is referred to as 'MP' for the purpose of this document

Background

The National Vocational Education and Training Regulator Act 2011 establishes the Vocational Education Training (VET) Quality Framework, a system which ensures the integrity of nationally recognised qualifications. Included in the VET Quality Framework are the Standards for Registered Training Organisations (RTOs) 2015.

MP must comply with the eight Standards as a condition of registration.

Specific to this policy is Standard 6 which requires all Registered Training Organisations to implement a complaints and appeals policy that enables learners and clients to be informed of, and to understand their rights, and the RTO's responsibilities under the Standards.

The Dedicated Consumer Protection Officer at MP is the General Manager, who can be contacted on (02) 60579333 or 0421 089 087 or admin@mptrainingandrecruitment.com.au

Intent

MP Training and Recruitment (MP) manages complaints effectively and efficiently, and uses feedback to improve practice. Learner and client satisfaction is enhanced through the provision of an effective feedback and complaints management system.

Analysis of complaints shall contribute to continuous improvement of MP policy and practice.

Scope

This policy and procedure apply to:

- Current and prospective MP learners, or groups of learners, clients, and employers; and
- Former MP learners, clients, and employers up until 30 days following withdrawal or completion

Purpose

This policy and procedure outline the principles governing MP in relation to complaints and appeals as well as facilitating compliance with Standard 6.

MP aims to:

- foster a culture that welcomes complaints as a valuable opportunity to improve organizational processes
- ensure that complaints are resolved promptly, objectively, fairly, with sensitivity and confidentiality; and
- ensure that both corrective and preventative actions are implemented to prevent recurrence of issues.

MP recognises the right of the learner and client to raise any complaint or appeal by:

- Informing learners of this in the Learner Handbook prior to commencement of training
- Providing access to the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure on the MP website
- Treating all complaints with confidentiality: where a learner or client is under 18, the parent/guardian of
- A learner may be contacted to inform them of the situation and explain the process
- Dealing with complaints as per the Complaints and Appeals Policy and Procedure and relevant
- legislation in a timely manner

- Providing an avenue of complaint and resolution to any sub contracted RTO's, their learners, and staff
- Ensuring no learner or client shall be disadvantaged or victimized because of making a complaint
- Helping with reporting and record of complaints
- Keeping the learner or client informed of the progress of their complaint
- Registering complaints on the Complaints Register and following the appeal process if required
- Recording and discussing complaints and outcomes at monthly RTO Meetings or SMT Meetings
- Implementing continuous improvement processes to address and rectify complaints

Complaints

This policy and procedure manage and responds to allegations involving the conduct of:

- MP, its trainers, assessors, or other staff in delivering RTO training and assessment.
- A third-party providing services on MP's behalf, its trainers, assessors, or other staff; or
- A Learner of MP.

Appeals

This policy and procedure also manage appeals for a review of decisions, including assessment decisions, made by MP or a third-party providing services on its behalf.

How MP will respond to a complaint or appeal

MP:

- Regularly updates the complainant on the progress of their complaint or appeal; and
- Informs the complainant in writing if it considers that more than 60 calendar days will be required to process and finalise the complaint or appeal, including reasons why more than 60 calendar days are required.
- Ensures the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness are adopted at every stage of the complaint and appeal process.
- Resolves the matter as soon as practicable

Independent Review

If the complainant is not satisfied with the outcome of a complaint or appeal, the complainant may refer the complaint or appeal to the Company Directors, or an independent agency/third party.

Records and Review

MP securely maintains records of all complaints and appeals and their outcomes. Only authorised individuals have access to complaints and appeals records.
